CALL FOR PROPOSALS

8 x artist residencies offered at Outlandia, Glen Nevis, Scotland in 2017

Outlandia is an off-grid space, 3m x 3m & 4.7m in height, up a steep forest track on a hillside facing Ben Nevis. The space might be used for thinking, researching, writing, making, installing, performing, interacting.

Proposals are welcome from artists and writers based in the UK and beyond; individuals or small groups of collaborating artists who are working in disciplines including architecture, fine art, sound art, creative writing, filmmaking.

Outlandia is off-grid but this need not exclude practitioners working with digital technologies. We are looking for experimental approaches to a challenging natural and working environment. Residencies are for 1-2 weeks. 4 residencies come with a stipend of £200 and 4 are self-funded.

Apply by email with a 1-page outline on why you are interested in this opportunity, how you would address the residency and with proposed dates between May 2017 and January 2018. Also include your CV and weblink to images of your work.

Deadline for proposals: 30th April 2017

Apply to: info@outlandia.com
